Practice 4.1

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	There are presently six (6) members in the Board of Directors (BOD), of which comprises a majority four (4) of Independent Non-Executive Directors; i.e. Tan Sri Academician Ir (Dr) Ahmad Zaidee Bin Laidin, Mohammad Khayat Bin Idris, Dr Abdul Latiff Bin Shaikh Mohamed and Datuk Haji Jalaludin Bin Ibrahim.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied - Annual shareholders' approval for independent directors serving beyond 9 years
Explanation on application of the practice	:	It is the responsibility of the Nominating Committee to assess the Independent Directors on an annual basis in order to ascertain that they display a strong element of impartiality upon discharging their duty. In conducting this assessment, the element of tenure is considered as to ensure that said criteria will not play a part in reducing impartiality or the lack of fresh insights. For FY 2020, two Independent Directors of the Company, namely, Tan Sri Academician Ir (Dr) Ahmad Zaidee Bin Laidin and Mohammad Khayat Bin Idris have exceeded the 9 years threshold by serving more than the said period respectively. Nonetheless, following an assessment, the Nominating Committee and the Board are of the view that the said Directors may continue to serve the Company and to advocate their professional views without the impairment of any independence. Hence, at the coming Annual General Meeting (AGM), the Board will seek for shareholders' approval to retain Tan Sri Academician Ir (Dr) Ahmad Zaidee Bin Laidin as an Independent Non-Executive Director.

Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.3 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.4

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board and Senior Management have been subjected to appointment based upon qualifications and skills suited to the Company alongside consideration of diversity in experience, age, gender and cultural background. At present, the composition of the Board and Senior Management includes industry specialists from diverse fields and industries in multi-conglomerate and local corporations.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.5

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policies on gender diversity, its targets and measures to meet those targets. For Large Companies, the board must have at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	At present, the Company adopts a gender diversity policy which encapsulates the objectives, principles and measures of the Group's diversity standpoint. In summary, the Board is supportive in upholding gender diversity within the boardroom and the management alongside due consideration on merited factors, such as, skills, experience, attitude and suitability of any potential candidates. Hence, as part of the Company's succession planning, gender diversity objectives will constantly be observed as a key consideration by the Company even without any specific targets determined. Additionally, the Board will look into the scope and measures of the policy on a regular basis, in ensuring its on-going effectiveness and applicability.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nominating Committee is responsible for recommending suitable candidates for directorship to the Board. In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board may utilise independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates. The Board took note of the guideline and through its Nomination Committee, they considered potential candidates for appointment of directors from various sources in their current process.

Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	An annual assessment was conducted by the Nominating Committee to assess the performance of the Board and the Board's Committee as well as the performance of the individual Director. The criteria that were assessed within the Director's Performance Evaluation Self-Assessment Form includes the following:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• key success factors;</li><li>• assessment of competencies;</li><li>• areas of improvement;</li><li>• comments and feedback; and</li><li>• knowledge and skills.</li></ul>
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.1

The board has in place policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	At present, all remuneration related matters of the Directors and Senior Management are subjected the oversight and management of the Remuneration Committee. Procedures, such as establishing and recommending the remuneration structure of the Company, assessment of the remuneration package for Directors and Senior Management, review indemnity and liability insurance policies and other relevant tasks are current carried out by the Committee prior to the necessary reporting to the Board.  A remuneration policy in stipulating guidance over the administration of matters related to remuneration within the Company is in place. The said policy shall be subjected to an annual review as well as to be made available on the Company's website.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.2

The board has a Remuneration Committee to implement its policies and procedures on remuneration including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of board and senior management.

The Committee has written Terms of Reference which deals with its authority and duties and these Terms are disclosed on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Currently, the Board establishes a Remuneration Committee to aid and monitor the implementations of remuneration procedures. In addition, the Committee, which is chaired by an Independent Non-Executive Director, is accompanied with its Terms of Reference that is disclosed within the company's website. ### Practice 7.2

The board discloses on a named basis the top five senior management's remuneration component including salary, bonus, benefits in-kind and other emoluments in bands of RM50,000.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board is satisfied that our Senior Management's remuneration commensurate with individual and company performance.  Disclosing Senior Management's remuneration would be disadvantageous to YLI Group, given the competitiveness in the market for talent and due to the confidentiality of remuneration packages.
	:	The performance of Senior Management are evaluated on an annual basis and measured against the targets sets for the year. The remuneration packages are reviewed annually and adjustments to their remuneration are made based on their individual performance and contributions in the preceding year taking into consideration the Company's performance.
